Our nation's capitol provides the perfect setting for four days of exploring ourselves, our community and the guiding principles of Jewish education. Washington, DC represents leadership, ideas and governance: the ingredients needed to make our country run and achieve great things. As Jewish educators, we also answer the call to serve. Join with us to examine the ingredients we need to make our schools thrive and succeed at the highest possible level.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

CONFERENCE BEGINS:
3:30 PM Sunday afternoon, January 24

CONFERENCE CONCLUDES:
12 Noon Wednesday, January 27

The Conference is taking place at the Marriott Inn and Conference Center, a LEED certified facility (environmentally friendly) in College Park, Maryland. It is adjacent to the University of Maryland campus and 25 minutes from downtown Washington, DC. We recommend flying into BWI Marshall (Baltimore-Washington International Airport). Dulles and Reagan National airports in Washington are also options.

CONFERENCE WITHIN A CONFERENCE

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

USCJ Early Childhood Directors once again join the JEA, benefiting both from sessions and social time with the entire conference and a more focused early childhood "conference-within-a-conference." EC directors will be able to learn from outstanding national educators and then view the information through an early childhood lens.

LAY LEADERSHIP

School, synagogue and community lay leaders are invited to attend the Carol and Gary Berman Institute for Lay Leadership on Sunday afternoon, January 24 at 1:30 PM just prior to the start of the full JEA Conference. Learn the latest trends in Jewish education, discuss your school's individual needs and strengthen the important role you play in your synagogue.
